

Mr. Robert Lee Ross

May 7, 1949 - December 1, 2013

Celebrating The Life Of Robert Lee Ross:

Robert Lee Ross was born on May 7, 1949 in Grenade, Mississippi to the late Doris Ross Wolfe and Burnell Bremer. He was the fourth child of Doris Wolfe. We are glad to know that Robert confessed Christ at an early age. From the age of eleven, Robert was raised by his aunt and uncle, Dora and Robert Carter in Sandusky, Ohio. He attended Sandusky High School and graduated in 1967. Robert was quite the athlete. But his true love was basketball where he excelled as a player. He was a fearless competitor on the playing surface and a tireless worker. He was a sharp dresser and a smooth operator.

As a teenager, Robert moved to Detroit, Michigan looking for a better opportunity. He was employed with the Chrysler Corporation from 1969 until his retirement in 1995. Ross was a character all by himself. We all knew him as 'Yank-Yank,' 'Boss Ross.' To know Ross was to love him. He was great at painting the picture as he told stories (sometimes untrue stories). There was no way you could be around Yank-Yank/Boss Ross and not leave with a smile on your face. He was a joy to be around. He made you feel good about yourself when you interfaced with him. He also enjoyed fishing, playing billiards, working (being the boss), and spending time with his family and friends.

Ross departed this life on Sunday December 1, 2013.
