

Mr. Robert James Scott, Sr.

June 7, 1941 - July 15, 2014

Mr. Robert James Scott Sr. was born June 7, 1941 in Hunting, VA to Mr. Robert Eli and Hazel Scott who preceded him in death. He was the oldest of six children ; two brothers preceded him in death, Glen Thomas and Jack Kelly. He confessed Christ at a young age.

He achieved the highest scout honors. Robert always strived to be the best at whatever he did. He graduated from Eastern High School in which he was member of the Glee Club and ROTC. Upon completion of high school he joined the U.S. Army Chemical Corps(Specialty). Robert received an Honorable Discharge as a sergeant in 1967. Robert was a bus driver for the city of Detroit for 15 year. He was named driver of the year and best dressed out of 300 men. He also became a member of the Masons 32nd Degree.

In 1977 he graduated from Detroit Police Academy and later retired and became a security guard. He enjoyed doing his own home improvement projects. He took great pride in his cars and loved to dress. Every one knew him as a clean cut guy.
