“ Me and Ricky grew up together on Hill Street in Highland Park. He and his family lived one door away from mine. We were like brother and sister. We both loved music and performed in church together, as part of a band and as a duet. We also hung out together as teens. Later, as an adult he encouraged me as a singer when my self confidence was lagging. I was so proud of him when he recorded his own gospel dvd!

My condolences to those who loved him.
