

Mr. Roderick Lavon Hardaway

August 20, 1956 - May 9, 2013

On August 20, 1956, God brought a remarkable person into the world, a man like no other, full of grace, vibrancy, resilience and love.

Roderick "Rocky" was second born to Clarence and Constance in Detroit, Michigan. He attended Wayne County Community School District from age 6 to 25, where he graduated. He loved to play basketball. He also loved gospel music, his favorites were, Aretha Franklin's "Mary Don't You Weep" and "God Will Take Care Of You."

He was loved by everyone who knew him. He enjoyed family and friends who brought happiness, joy and laughter to his life. "Rocky" loved his family and remained positive throughout his illness.

"Rocky" made his transition on Thursday, May 9, 2013 at Henry Ford Hospital with his mother by his side.
