

Mr. Roland Floyd Dungen

March 15, 1936 - September 18, 2013

Roland Floyd Dungen was born on March 15, 1936 to the late Sam and Mayella Dungen in St. Louis, Missouri. Roland departed this earthly life on September 18, 2013. His siblings; Artemese, Charles, Marcus, Emma-Jean, identical twin brother Raymond and niece Sharon Brown preceded him in death.

Roland moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1939 and attended Detroit Public Schools. He graduated in 1953 from Pershing High School and was a star athlete in football, track and basketball. In 1959, his basketball skills afforded him the opportunity to play with the Harlem Stars which traveled world-wide. He served in the Vietnam War with an honorable discharge. He worked at The Ford Motor Company and Safeway Bus Company where he retired. In the mid-1950s, he met Arlene Moss and to this union two sons were born; Roland Floyd Moss and Myron Jerome Moss. In the early 1960s, he met and married Barbara Street and to this union two daughters were born; Monica Lynn Dungen and Jill LaReen Dungen. In 2011, he married Ernestine Dials. During their marriage, they loved to travel, dance and enjoy each other's loving company. Roland attended The Word of Truth Church of God in Christ and rededicated his life back to the Lord. Roland was the last to survive his parents and siblings, but will be missed by all who knew and loved him.
