Ronald Orville Allen was born on January 14, 1949 in Detroit, Michigan to the late Orville Sr. and Dorothy Allen.

In 1967, Ronnie was drafted into the United States Army and served during the Vietnam War, where he was honorably discharged in 1970. After his tour with the military, Ronnie returned to work at General Motors. During this time he reconnected with Linda Ball, whom he married in August 1970. To this union, one daughter, Tomeika Lashay Allen was born.

Ronnie will always be known as a (man's man) for his leading by example attitude when it came to providing for his family. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for his family. He didn't give you everything you asked for but he always made sure you had everything you needed. Ronnie loved kids and felt strongly about letting kids be a kid. He took joy in making sure his daughter and granddaughter with other family members always attended events. Due to illness, Ronnie had to retire early from General Motors. During his retirement, he enjoyed being around his family, reading the newspaper and especially listening to (Talk Radio).

Ronald made his transition on November 3, 2017 with his wife, daughter and granddaughter by his side.
