

Mr. Ronald Harris

May 21, 1955 - April 9, 2013

Ronald Harris was born on April 21, 1951, in Detroit, Michigan to Veronia and Wilbur Harris.

He was the youngest of four children and the only boy. Ronald confessed to Christ at Word of Power Apostolic Church and was baptized in the name of Jesus on January 20, 2002. Ronald was educated in Detroit Public Schools and employed at Ford Motor Company for 17 years, where he worked as a painter. He later worked with his nephew “Stevie” in a cartage service business; and most recently enjoyed working with Blair and Yolanda Glover in rehabbing their investment properties. He was always excited to be a part of their “before and after” projects.

Ronald who was most affectionately known as “Ronnie” was a “No Problem, Carefree” kinda guy. He was a humble man with a servant spirit, who always took the initiative to help others. Ronnie never turned you down. If you needed his help he was there from start to finish in completing tasks.

Ronnie and Linda “Lin” shared a loving “common law marriage” for over 24 years. They experienced both the “good” and “bad” times “weathering the storms” together. Ronnie was a great support in keeping families together, he valued his family to the utmost and especially adored his mother and aunts. He became a father figure to Darius and Donntay and was a very special part of the Calhoun Family.

Ronnie was the life of the party. He was high-spirited and always enthusiastic at gatherings. He had an out of this world laugh. He especially loved singing the Stevie Wonder rendition of the "Happy Birthday" song at all of the family birthday celebrations. Ronnie loved food and his eyes were "never" bigger than his stomach. He also didn't mind giving you a nickname like daughter #1 and daughter #2. His favorite sayings were: "YOU SEE" and "SHO YOU RIGHT."
