“ I worked with Ron many years ago at the Department of Social Services. Ron always treated clients with compassion, care and respect. As a coworker, Ron was always available to assist and was a joy to work with. I know he will be missed by family and friends.

“ Dear Kelley family, I want to offer my condolences for your loss of Ronald. I know during this difficult time, it is hard to have any hope but at Isaiah 25:8, it tells us that one day God will swallow up death and he will wipe the tears from our eyes. I hope the love and comfort you receive from family and friends will help you during this time.

Dear Kelley Family:

Please know that our prayers and sympathies are with you. The loss of a friend that we have known for over 50 odd years has left a void in our lives as well as yours.

May God keep and bless your family.
