

Mr. Ronald Lee Klugh

February 13, 1946 - January 21, 2020

In Loving Memory Of;

Ronald Lee Klugh was born on February 13, 1946 to Rufus Klugh and Margaret Lawrence who both preceded him in death. Thus, Alberta Klugh-Lawrence lovingly raised him as her son until her death. He had two sisters, Elaine Nixon and Pamela Card, one brother Riley (Oscar) Card, who preceded him in death. His nephew Eric Nixon, grandson Albert Conner and great-granddaughter Jahziah Green, all preceded him in death.

Ronald grew up in Hamtramck, MI attended Hamtramck Public Schools and moved to Detroit in mid 1970s. He was employed by Chrysler as a steel worker, but the position was not fulfilling. His passion was cooking. Chrysler provided culinary school, where he graduated and then became one of their head chefs cooking for executive events and daily for assembly line workers. Ronald loved to entertain for his family and friends. With his annual super bowl parties, fight parties and backyard barbecues. He was the ultimate host. If you visited him during the Christmas holidays you would first be impressed by all the light decorations as you approached the house. Then a big elaborate Christmas tree as soon as he opened the door. And you would enjoy his infamous banana, coconut cream cake.

Ronald loved to travel, to such places as New Orleans, New York, Atlanta, Florida, Montreal, Grand Canyon, Dominican Republic to name a few. He never missed a family reunion whether in town or out of state. He made sure everyone that wanted to go had transportation. He was an avid fisherman. In his younger days and on, he was always fishing in Michigan waters and Canada. He also got his party on. A music lover of the oldies. And would do the two step every chance he got.
