

Ms. Ronda Unice Ashmon

August 6, 1960 - June 23, 2015

Her Journey:

Ronda Unice Ashmon was called home to rest the evening of June 23, 2015 surrounded by loved ones. She was born to the union of Ronald Eugene Ashmon and Alice Ashmon on August 6, 1960 in Detroit, Michigan. She was reared and educated on the eastside of Detroit.

She attended Denby High School where she was a stellar athlete who enjoyed competitive sports. She was on both the basketball and track teams and relished in showcasing her talents and abilities. Her slam dunks were epic. After graduating from Denby High School in 1979, Ronda continued to excel in numerous athletic and physical activities such as tennis, martial arts and aquatic sports. Health and fitness was an integral part of her lifestyle. She excelled in this area and went on to become an aerobics instructor and a member of the Marcus Garvey Academy African dance troupe.

After high school she went on to pursue a psychology degree at Wayne State University. Following her studies, she landed her ideal job as a Sheriff with the Wayne County Sheriff's Office.

In recent years as her health began to deteriorate, she continued to work each day in spite of her challenges. As a single mother, Ronda worked tirelessly to provide a comfortable life for her family. The resilience and perseverance she displayed with her work was a common thread found throughout her lifetime. Momma Ronda, as she was affectionately known, was a woman of great strength and courage. She valiantly battled ill health with very few complaints. She was a proud woman who was quiet, often soft spoken but fiercely private and protective. Momma Ronda was an excellent cook who was known for her famous baked goods especially sweet potato pie and pineapple upside down cake. The family looked forward to any occasion that would warrant her donning the apron. Ronda was also very nostalgic and famous for chronicling milestones and events. She collected a treasure trove of family mementos and photographs that were prized and held dear to her heart. Ronda was a constant source of encouragement and support to those she loved. You could always count on her to have your back.

She was a loving mother who doted on her two children and a proud grandmother to three wonderful grandchildren. She will forever be loved, cherished and missed.

“ *If I could build a stairway to heaven
where every step up would take me down memory lane*

I would not only build that stairway, but I would build it with pure gold and I would walk right up to heaven and bring you home to relive all those beautiful moments we shared over and over again

Although I did get a chance to tell you that I love you; I feel as if no farewell words were spoken and we had no time to say good-bye

My spirit is torn and my heart is severely broken on how you're just gone before a blink of an eye

I know God don't make mistakes, but I have no control over how my heart aches or how I'm drowning in my own tears from constant flow.

Words can never express how much I love and miss you big sister, therefore trying to write how I feel is harder than one will ever know.

I know if you were here you would tell me to stop crying and not to mourn for you anymore

You would tell me to cherish your memories, remember all the happy times we shared, and to live and enjoy the good times that God has for my life in store

My friend/My big sister your humbleness and grateful ways will never be forgotten... Today I pledge to you that the hallowed place within my heart where my love for you resided when you were here, is exactly where it will remain because for you I will always truly care

I promise you I will be strong... I will wipe all my tears dry and no longer ask God why he made the choice to take you away from here to be there

I'll merely learn to understand that you're in your glory... Living peacefully without pain in heaven's new light, and from this day fourth God's new angel I will send you my love every night as I pray my Holy Prayer

Rest In Heaven Ronda Ashmon... I will always LOVE you big sister.

“ I remember the very first time I met mama Ashmon it was brief because apparently me Chunky Monique and a few other of our friends were making way too much noise lol it was the last time though. It's been a long time since I've been around her but I still remember how nice to is she was and sweet warm and loving. To the Ashmon family I don't know all of you but I love you all and pray strength in all of your lives and Chunky you know I love and care for you too if there is anything you need you already know you can ask me I've been here before and I understand how hard this transition can be but you will get through this...

“ Hello my name is Tenesha Cooper and I would like to share my memories of Ronda. Momma Ronda was a loving and quiet lady but don't get it twisted she would let you know if you wrong. Momma Ronda was a fighter she never complained and you never knew when she was having a bad day. For years she fought a good fight and I want her children to know that God makes no mistakes. The lord prepared her a place with him in heaven and once he finished he called her home. Momma Ronda you are loved and you will be missed.
