“ I didn't even know your name was Ronnie until I was an adult because you were always Uncle SJ to me. Although not a biological uncle, you always treated me like family and I'll never forget that. When Ronnie and Aaron got in trouble, I got in trouble too and I knew that if I did something Uncle SJ could get me just like any of my other family members.

When my dad passed, I came home after the funeral to see you scrubbing my stove with a brillo pad in your suit, getting it ready for the feast we were about to prepare. That is true, genuine, family love and I will always love you for being you. You will truly be missed Uncle SJ.

“ *I enjoyed taking sports with Ronnie and even though the Tigers have been having a bad year, we kept hoping for a turnaround. I meet Ronnie at LA Fitness during the water aerobics class and loved watching him dance to the Motown music that sometimes was playing. You will be missed,
