

Mr. Roosevelt Shedrick Sr.

April 10, 1931 - May 13, 2018

Going Home Celebration For Roosevelt Shedrick:

Roosevelt Shedrick was born on April 10, 1931 in Swainsboro, Georgia to Isadro Shedrick and Melvinia Shedrick, both preceded him in death. He was educated in the Swainsboro School System.

In the late 60s, he decided to leave Georgia and move to Michigan with his sister Rose. He later joined the Detroit Diesel Automotive Plant where he worked and retired after 36 years. While in Michigan Roosevelt met the love of his life Pamela Irene whom later preceded him in death. The two were together a few years, then decided to join hands in holy matrimony. They married and to this union a child was born, Tameka.

Roosevelt had a personality that gained him many friendships, a lot work related and some non-work related, but was loved by many. Roosevelt confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized. Roosevelt was always available to his family and friends when they needed him, his generosity and love will truly be missed.

Roosevelt loved to work and even on his off days he had a hammer and nail trying to fix something. He especially had a special love for his grand kids, he'd bring them candy almost every day coming from work. He'd call them and say "hey kids got these CANDY KISSES" and they come running. Another thing he taught the kids was how to hand bone, and had a little song and entertainment for them, and it was called "Cat can't eat CAT can't talk." Roosevelt was known for taking his family on outings to have fun and his favorite spot was the river front, where they all had fun and spent nights on the river. I could go on and on about the times with this man, let's just say there was a lot of love in this family.
