

Mrs. Rosa Lee Scott

August 7, 1932 - October 22, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Rosa Lee Scott:

Rosa Lee Scott born August 7, 1932 on a beautiful Sunday evening at 10:30 PM in Macon, Georgia. She was first child of ten for Charlie Sledge and Bernice (Burke) Sledge. She attended Macon public schools where she found a great love for social studies and homemaking. She was preceded in death by both parents, three sisters (Virginia, Jo Elaine and Cynthia) two brothers (Tommy and Willie) and three daughters (Christina Scott, Gloria Scott-Franklin and Sandra Foster)

She married one time, to Elder John E. Scott also from Macon, Georgia. After careful consideration the family decided to move to Detroit, Michigan to take advantage of the booming automobile industry. When the family was stable and all kids in school, Rosa Lee would work for small businesses and entrepreneurs. One of her last jobs was with the Eckrich Sausage Company in Detroit. She was very proud that the bosses would always request her because of her attention to detail and work ethics.

Rosa Lee accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior early in her life. Many Sundays she could be found taking a bus ride with several of her kids to church. And on most Sundays when she didn't make it to service, she would prepare a dinner basket for the congregation.

Rosa Lee would say, "Call on Jesus. I tried him for myself. He may not come when you want him, but he's always right on time."

“ Dear Scott Family,

For a Time of Sorrow: I share with you the agony of your grief, the anguish of your heart finds echo in my own. I know I cannot enter all you feel nor bear with you the burden of your pain; I can but offer what my love does give: The strength of caring, the warmth of one who seeks to understand the silent storm-swept barrenness of so great a loss. This I do in quiet ways, that on your lonely path you may not walk alone--Howard Thurman.

God Bless Your Heart!
