“ *To my dearest friend Roxanne and her entire family. I wish to express my heartfelt condolence to all of you at this time of mourning. Being the Christians that you are you know in your heart that your mom isn't suffering anymore and she has gone on to glory. I still remember her Famous Red Velvet Cakes, to this day I haven't tasted one as good. Keep the faith and trust in your hearts you will see each other again.
Love you and the Family.*

“ Mrs. Steed , Lady Roxanne Jefferson and Third New Hope Baptist Church introduced me to serving and Women's Conferences. As teens we would work in the kitchen, serve and participate in the classes and services. I thank God as I remember the training, fun and love we experienced even as children and guests. Family, I am praying for your comfort and peace at this time and rejoicing that Mother Steed is present with the Lord.
