

Mrs. Rosalin Marie Cranford

February 17, 1953 - January 19, 2017

In Loving Memory Of Rosalin Marie Cranford:

Rosalin Marie Cranford was born in River Rouge, Michigan on February 17, 1953 to the late Monroe and Birdie Mae Owens Frost. Rosalin was affectionately known as Marie by all who knew and loved her.

Growing up in Southwest Detroit, Marie attended Waterfall Missionary Baptist Church. She received her formal education in Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Southwestern High School in 1971.

Marie was united in holy matrimony to the love of her life, Jimmie Cranford, Jr., on October 18, 1972. From their loving union two children were born; Tresbian Consuello and Brian James.

Marie had a long career with the PepsiCo Corporation in their Frito-Lay division located in Allen Park, Michigan. After her retirement, she gained more time to spend with her family and close friends.

Marie was very active and enjoyed playing softball in the community as well as work leagues. One of her favorite pastimes was roller skating. She had some great moves out on the floor! Some of her other interest included; bowling, fishing and traveling with her family. In more recent times she expressed a desire to be certified to ride and own a Harley. Marie certainly kept herself busy as she enjoyed life and made sure she always had the right outfit for every occasion, which was only made possible by her love for SHOPPING!

On January 19, 2017 Marie gained her angel wings as she transitioned on her journey to be with the Lord.
