

Mrs. Rosalind Hemingway-Braden

July 14, 1946 - December 14, 2018

Rosalind's Journey:

Rosalind Hemingway was born on July 14, 1946 in Detroit, Michigan to Ethel and Ore Hemingway. Rosalind accepted Christ at an early age. Rosalind was affectionately know as Ros by friends and family.

Rosalind attended Mumford High School. While in high school, she was a honor roll student and graduated from Mumford High School in 1963. After high school, Ros attended Wayne State University, studying in the field of social work, in which she received a Master's Degree in Clinical Social Work.

Rosalind was employed with the Detroit Public Schools as a social worker until her retirement in 2013.

Rosalind was joined in holy matrimony with Clarence Braden. To this union two children were born.

Ros loved spending time with her grandchildren and worshipping with her church family and senior group.

Rosalind departed this life on December 14, 2018.

“ Roz" was a great woman and a wonderful School Social Worker. She gave a huge part of herself to help all children while working at Detroit Public Schools.

To the family, know that your mother did what's required of us all; to help others.

You're in my thoughts and prayers!
