“ Rosalyn was a very brave, courageous, and special lady. Though we never saw each other often when we did we would catch up on all we missed. She loved talking about her son and all his accomplishments and you could just feel the love that she had for him. May you find comfort in the memories of your mother and find the strength that she has instilled in you to make it through the days ahead. I am sorry I cannot be there to say a proper farewell but know that the entire Baker family is in my thoughts and prayers. I am honored to have known you Rosalyn. You weren't just a coworker, you were a friend. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ Al Jarreau's song "My Old Friend" comes to mind as I think about you and what we have shared through the years..."From the beginning to the end, always there my old friend..." I pray that your soul is at peace as we are all left to be comforted by the memories of better times. You have been the epitome of a great friend and I will miss you. Peace and blessings to the family.

“ First time I met Rosalyn it was like I known her forever. She was a warm and pleasant person. We would go to lunch at lease once a month. I am going to miss those lunch dates. Rest in peace.

“ "Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal". Know that your Louisiana Family (COOK) is praying for you. Renee recieved her wings & left behind all pain & suffering. She will always be in your hearts & thoughts. Take comfort in knowing that you did everything possible for her during her illness & now she is safe in the arms of JESUS.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. May the Peace of God surround you during this difficult time. Ros was like a sister to me. She helped care for my biological sister Alice for years. I recently saw Ros during her visit to Atlanta in May. I selfishly held on to her before she boarded the plan because I missed her so. Ros is not defeated by Cancer. God decided it was time for to rest. I know she and Alice are having a good time in heaven. Peace & Blessings, Julia Allen

“ Ajamu,

Your mom has always been a kind loving woman. Her kindness and warm spirit will always be remembered. She is a special kind of woman. Strong spirit, faithful friend and a listening ear. (But you already knew that)

God Bless You and the entire family.
