“ I loved working on the window at the Post Office. She was always ray of sunshine, and had a beautiful and pleasant personality. I truly missed her and am devastated to hear of her passing. My love and prayers go out to her children and her entire family.

I knew rose. We meet at my hair salon and she was my best friend for a period of time. She helped me through a very rough time of my life. We ended on a bad note because I was young and selfish. I never got the chance to apologize and truly regret it. She was a one of a kind and I loved her beautiful soul. The world is a worse place without her smile.
