“ My daughter has been Miss Rose's hairdresser for the last 15 or so years. She was extremely fond of Miss Rose and grieved with her when her grandson died and when she herself became ill. My daughter's oldest son and Miss Rose share the same birth date so she called to wish Miss Rose a happy birthday today and was told that she died. She is simply devastated; she says Miss Rose was fine the last time she spoke with her a couple of months ago. My youngest grandson used to help Miss Rose with her daily walks during one of the times that she was recuperating. I met Miss Rose several times and she was always pleasant and generous. She was very protective of my daughter and my grandsons and I will always be grateful for the love that she showed them. Rest in peace Miss Rose. God knows you deserve it. Vanessa, LaMonica wants you to know that she loved your mother and sends her deepest condolences.

“ From the International Ministers Fellowship USA Chapter, and International Ministers Fellowship Worldwide:

Words will not bring your loved one back to you although words do bring comfort. We ask you to receive our heartfelt condolences. We share in your grief.

Hold to the truth that the blessed peace of Mrs. Rose Marie is secure in the One she served as Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

There is a phrase that came from Thomas Moore that says, "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." Those words ring true in the following scripture verses:

Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 25:8-9, Isaiah 35:10

Our prayer is that the word and revelation of our All Mighty God, Jehovah will cause you to reign in peace. That it will heal the sorrow that has come to you in the passing of your mother, friend, aunt, cousin, and comrade in the gospel of Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God.

The Lord's joy is your strength. Amen.

We love you.

Agape and peace,

*Apostle Stacy and Minister Carl Slaughter, President USA
Apostle George and Pastor Grace Akalonu, International President*
