Going Home Celebration For Rose Mae Hunter:

My name is Rose Hunter, born in Montgomery, Alabama July 8, 1934 to Lottie Singleton and Adam

Ballard. Her mother moved to Birmingham, Alabama where she met and married Ben Miles and he raised her as his own daughter.

When Rose was nine years old, she sang in a young girls group called The Willing Workers, they sang on the radio every Sunday morning and traveled over the south.

When she was 18 years old, she moved to Detroit to live with her cousin, Helen Cochran (Bill Cochran). She met Arthur Hunter, who she went to school with at Wenona High. They married in 1957, had two sons, Anthony and Don Hunter (Kathy).

She sang in the choir of Greater Bethlehem. She had three grandchildren, Austin, Rachel and Camile. Her husband passed away March 8, 2001 after 44 years of marriage. She and her husband ran a dry cleaning business for 30 years.

“ Condolences to the family of Ma Rose

Ma Rose I will miss you , I miss you at especially at Christmas . I didn't know you were sick.

Thanks you for being a part of our Family and sharing your laughter , your smile, your hugs for over thirty years.

You were truly a warm hearted loving person, a real southern Belle. You knew just how to keep the peace, keep everybody together, and keep love in the atmosphere.

I know these years without Dad Arthur were tough and took a toll on you. But I know you are together

With him now . So I know you are smiling over again.

One of the reasons I didn't push the issue with the job today about getting off work to be able to deliver these words in person is because I knew in my heart you would say....."Baby you go to workAndre and Tony can handle things...I'll be okay " I want to remember you just the way I last saw you on Mother's day Day....Happy even though you were starting to slow down.....,it was beautiful sunny Sunday with lots of smiles, love and laughter as it had always been for the last 35 years.

Bernadette , sister – in – law of the Hunter family.

“ To the Family of Rose Mae Hunter:
From the ancient Sifi Poet 'Rumi', a poem.

THE SEED MARKET

Can you find another market like this?
Where,
With your one Rose
you can buy hundreds of Rose gardens?
Where,
for one seed
You get a wilderness?
For one breath,
The divine wind?
Now, your waterbead let's go
And drops into the Ocean,
Where it came from.
It no longer has the form it had,
But it's' still water.
The essence is the same.
This giving up is not a repenting.
It's a deep honoring of yourself.
When the Ocean comes to you as a lover,
Marry at once, quickly,
for God's sake!
Don't postpone it!
Existance has no greater Gift.
No amount of searching will find this.
A Perfect Falcon, for no reason,
has landed on your shoulder,
And become yours.

To the Family: Anthony, AndreaKay, Donald, Kathy, Austin, Rachel, Camille,
I send my Love to you all.

My Love for Rose is Deep; But GOD'S Love for her is Everlasting.
