

Mr. Roy Dell Foster Jr.

February 22, 1961 - August 7, 2022

In Loving Memory Of

Roy Dell Foster, Jr. was born on February 22, 1961, in Detroit, Michigan. He was the youngest of nine children born to Roy Dell, Sr. and Zelda Mae Foster. Roy attended church regularly as a youth and accepted Christ at an early age.

Roy attended Noble Elementary/Junior High and Mackenzie High Schools, all located in Detroit, Michigan. While in high school, Roy played small forward on the Varsity Basketball Team, number 40. His team competed and won the State Championship Game in 1979! Roy's skills and basketball abilities made him a stand-out player on any court he graced. Once, he even played one-on-one against Isiah Thomas at St. Martin de Porres Summer Camp. After graduation from Mackenzie in 1980, Roy was given a full Basketball Scholarship to Schoolcraft College in Livonia, Michigan. Unfortunately, Roy underwent a severe blow to the head, while playing basketball. The head injury attributed to him having severe ongoing seizures, which brought his basketball career to an abrupt stop.

Roy was employed by a few small businesses and did several odd jobs in the neighborhood over the years.

Roy and Janice Scott were joined in holy matrimony for only a brief while. However, their mutual friendship remained over the years. Roy had no biological children; however, he loved his nephews and nieces as if they were his own.

Roy's favorite sport was basketball. He also loved to attend or watch football, wrestling, boxing, and baseball. Roy was a people person, and enjoyed having family and friends in his company, especially his nephews and nieces, who were all crazy about their Uncle Roy.

Roy departed this life on Sunday, August 7, 2022.
