“ I can remember when my brother Junior was a little kid and I had him out exploring the neighborhood on the west side with me. We crossed a construction site on the Fisher freeway before it was built. I looked behind me and Junior was gone-he fell down into an uncovered sewer drain. I heard him cry out. I went down and carried him up on my back. I never told my mother till much later cause she would have killed us both but especially me for taking him that far from home. I have many memories of my brother that only he and I remember which I cherish. Junior I always loved you and never dealt well with your suffering. Maybe it was being too selfish but know it was never from lack of love. Give mom and the rest of the family our love. We'll miss you dearly little brother. RIHP Junior.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. 2Cor 1:3,4 helps us to see then in times of distress we need to look to Jehovah God for comfort. He's described as the God of all comfort. I hope this scripture can bring you a bit of comfort in you and your family's time of need.
