

Mr. Roy A Weaver, Sr.

March 13, 1964 - February 28, 2017

In Loving Memory Of Roy Avery Weaver Sr.:

Roy Avery Weaver, Sr. was born in Mobile, Alabama on March 13, 1964 to Robert Weaver, Sr. and Daisy Gulley.

He received his formal education at Frank Cody High School in Detroit, Michigan where he was a basketball standout and graduate of the class of 1982. Upon graduating from Cody High, Roy entered the United States Army in which he served until May of 1990. He was promoted to Sergeant in 1988.

During his tenure in the U. S. Army, he met the beautiful Tonya L. Weaver (Childrey). They were married for 15 plus years and had two wonderful children; Roy Weaver Jr. and Ross Weaver.

Roy was known by everyone for his quick witted jokes, knowledge of history, and love of old school music. His music was his sanctuary as he would often go to Belle Isle Park with his family to watch the ships go by, while listening to old school favorites. No matter where he went, he was always known as, "The life of the Party," because he knew that it was no need to worry about the future, but instead enjoy the present.

“ I had not heard from Roy and was worried about him. I am so very sorry for your loss, and you all have my deepest sympathy. Roy and I were great friends. We would ride to Belle Isle and sit by the water listening to Kool and the Gang or Luther Vandross which reminded him of his wife. We would argue and laugh at the silliest things. He was so proud of his son's, and happy to be a grand father. He loved his family deeply. He was very close to his brother, and told me so many funny stories about his mom. Roy was who he was, and will be dearly missed. May God continue to keep all of you in perfect peace as you deal with the passing of your beloved.

“ I remember a lot of things about my brother, especially his sense of humor. Most of all I remember he and I as teenagers. On Saturdays, he'd wash my mom's car until it was gleaming. Then, with $20 dollars between us, we would put gas in the car and ride. That's it, just ride. Music playing, windows down... riding. Funny thing is when I asked my daughter what she remembered most about her Uncle Roy, without hesitation she said, "The way we used to just get in the car and ride. Going no where in particular, we would just ride mom." Thanks Roy for the many enjoyable rides and the memories associated with them and all the other good times. I always loved you. And today, and everyday forward, I will miss you.

*Love Your Sister,
Necy*

“ Saying goodbye to a sibling is difficult but to one that is younger is even tougher. My heart is heavy but even in this difficult time my mind keeps drifting back to all the times we were together or simply spoke on the phone. Those thoughts make me not just smile but burst out in laughter. Baby brother you were so much fun to be around and you always lived life with a great joy which spread to those around you. The last time we spoke I did not say I Love You, so I pray that as you look down on us you hear the words I Love You coming from my heart. I will miss you...
