Celebrating The Life Of Royce Ann Nichols:

Royce Ann Nichols, affectionately known as “Ann” by many, was born January 28, 1937 in Memphis, Tennessee to Flim and Freddie Brooks.

Royce accepted Christ at an early age at Mount Pisagah Baptist Church of Memphis, Tennessee.

Royce attended the Public School System in Tennessee through high school. After high school, her family migrated to Detroit, Michigan. She became a faithful member of New Light Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Cornell Talley. Later, she joined Central Baptist Church where she served on the Senior Usher Board as treasurer.

Royce was employed with the Henry Ford Health System for 28 years as a unit clerk until she retired to become caregiver to her mother and husband.

She was joined in holy matrimony with Charles Ray Nichols. From this union, three children, Ronald Lee, Yvette Reni and Eddie Charles were born.

Royce enjoyed an array of activities such as basketball, mall walking, gardening and playing bid whist. She was an outstanding cook and enjoyed most of all preparing delicious meals for her family.
