“ Dear family of Rudy Nash,
My wife LaWonna and I were so sorry to hear of Rudy passing. We were so happy that his daughters made it possible for him to join us at the Detroit Renaissance Lion's Club Virtual meeting two months ago. It was such a pleasure hearing and seeing him not knowing it would be the last time.
We were not able to attend any services for him due to a restriction my doctor had given me from a recent procedure.
We are praying for your entire family.
Sincerely,
Lions Ron and LaWonna Coleman

“ I first met Mr. Nash when my future college roommate (and forever sister) Pam Nash and I met and became friends in the 10th grade at Cass Tech. He was also a mentor to my nephew Sterling, who worked with Mr. Nash at Plum Hollow Bowling Lanes. Many years later whenever I talked to Mr. Nash, he always asked me how his boy was doing.

I will remember Mr. Nash as a man who showed such love to his three girls and always looked out for others. Sterling sends his love, too. Rest in Heaven. Love, Michele Walker

“ My late father-in-law, my husband and I, used to sit in the pew behind Mr. and Mrs. Nash in the sanctuary during worship service. We were all in the same Deacons group too; Group #12, The Peculiar Ones. We shall always fondly remember his mild manner and warm smile. May God give Comfort to the family of HIS servant, Rudolph Nash.

“ I am so grateful for being the daughter of Rudolph Nash, which meant that I was blessed to be one of the “Nashes”. A very loving, open arms, close knit, supportive, and full of life family!!! My dad was a BIG man with a big heart, in a medium sized body and he left a huge footprint on this side. I treasure such fond memories, but most of all my daddy's love. He was a genuine girl's dad, ❤️❤️❤️
