Hey Mickie. When I saw your dads picture it brought tears to my eyes. Although I haven't talked to or seen you or any of the family in a very long time, I have the best memories of my childhood and you guys are a big part in those memories, seriously. Your mom and your dad (Mr. and Mrs Ruddy and Jerri Vesey) were the sweetest and I can honestly say I loved them both. I loved all you guys growing up: You, Pam, Darryl, Bruce and Narvell. Im 53 now so if I misspelled any of you guys name forgive me. I rnbr u guys huge house on Plum st. and my favorite time with the family was every Sat (it seemed) u guys came and got Michelle and I in the family stationwagon and we went to Hillsdale Farm!!!! I loved it!!! I think it was your dads parents. I will forever cherish those memories, thanks to your dad and mom and all of you. I love you all....Lynette Eady

“ My daddy is the yard stick by which all men are measured. He was my symbol of strength, honor and reliability. He taught me how to live my life without the need to regret anything. He was loving, gentle and stearn when needed. He saw good in everyone and had a forgiving spirit. People tend to make saints out of individuals after they die, but I'm not doing that. My daddy was human. He had his flaws and was by no means perfect, but he was the best man that he could have possibly been. He did his best. He gave his all in everything he put his mind to. Life will never be the same without my daddy in it.
