

Mr. Rufus Bacon

September 21, 1939 - July 30, 2014

Rufus Bacon, 74, transitioned into eternal rest on July 30, 2014, at the Fountains of Franklins, after an extensive illness.

Rufus was born on September 21, 1939 in Choctaw, Mississippi to Macio and Carmen Bacon. He was the beloved brother of nine siblings (Macio Jr., Rose, Charles, James, Mattie, Joe, John, Willie and Ivory Dean). The family later moved/relocated to Detroit, Michigan.

Rufus was led to the Lord at a young age and continued his education in the Detroit Public Schools system. After Rufus graduated from Northwestern High School, he married Pearly Harris. He obtained a job with Wayne County, and worked in the road commission, engineer division, for 32 years.

Rufus was passionate about learning and always encouraged his children and others to strive for and complete higher education.

In his younger day, his hobbies included coaching little league baseball, attending sporting events and collecting hats. He also was known for his handy work with home repairs.

“ Pearl: I know your heart is very heavy at this time, and there is very little one can say. I remember when you first met Rufus, and how your face would light up at the very sight of him and how he chased you until you two were finally one. GOD will keep you in arms until your heart is lighter.
