“ My momma was that a wonderful person. She was the watcher. Ready when I was and always willing to relinquish her position when ever I found that I wanted to be the spoiled little brat she allowed me to be. Momma would fix a whole different meal from the rest of the family just for me, only because I didn't want to eat what she had prepared. Sometimes she only had to make a slight adjustment, but it didn't really matter what had to be done, she frequently made the changes just to please me. I remember momma sitting in her favorite chair, in the corner by the window with me on her lap or getting bounced on her knee while she was on the phone, smoking and looking out the window all at the same time. My momma was the greatest. The day she passed a huge part of me went with her. I know she's watching over me and will be waiting for me with a smile on her lovely face and open arms when I start my climb up the stair way leading to heaven. I love my momma with all my heart. She's the watcher.

“ Ms. Ruth taught me a lot. She taught me to sop greens, how to eat all kinds of wild game that Mr. Toney hunted, that to stay in a marriage the key is to not try to get out. Although I learned that while on my second marriage. Ms. Ruth made us panny cakes after we stomped around the house doing the "we want panny cake dance"! She always came to get Kim from my house in the middle of the night since me and Selena wouldn't let Kim sleep. She even helped Kim out of the dryer when it got turned on during a clean game of hide and go seek. Ms. Ruth definitely helped me become the person I am today. She was a kind, intelligent, trustworthy and a great mentor for me. She helped me and my brother throughout our life. She made me feel like I was her kid. I think sometimes she treated me better than some of her own. She'd always look out for me and tell the others not to hurt me. I thank The Lord that Ms. Ruth was in my life. Heaven has an angel now.
