“ *Ryan was a good man,
and when his work was done,
He'd have time for fun,*

*Let me tell you this
He'll sorely be missed!!*

“ It was a pleasure not only working with Ryan, but also talking to him every day at work. He always had a smile on his face, and took the time to chat even when he was off the clock and heading home. Ryan.....you were one of a kind, and I will miss you.

“ I have had the extraordinary experience to have known and worked with Ryan, or as we called him Sarge. A tremendous person and wonderful human being. I will miss Sarge especially because we shared the same birthday, and were the same age. He was well liked at the post office and not a bad word could be said about him. My deepest condolences to his family and friends he is in heaven now to do God's work. I will miss you Sarge, God Bless You.

“ So very sorry for your loss, Sheila and family. May peace be with you at this sorrowful time. I remember Ryan coming into the bank with the boys (your daughter wasn't born yet). He was so handsome in his green military uniform. 😭
