“ Grandma, the Matriarch of our family words can't express the void in our family now. Thinking back to the days when I was a child, spending the night and getting up for church, I would awake to the smell of coffee, bacon and grits and you saying "Thumper" it's time to get up. We would get to church and sit in the last pew on the left hand side! Grandma I know that you were tired and no one could tell the pain that you were in, and yes the selfish is wants you here right now, but while you are physically gone from this earth, our memories with and of you will live on. Love and miss you "Thumper", Kiara and Kaleb.
