

Mrs. Sadie Mae Madison

May 7, 1926 - December 26, 2018

Her Story:

Sadie M. Madison was born to Minnie and James Harris on May 7, 1926 in Kansas City, Kansas.

Sadie was a sister to three brothers, Leonard, Ralph and Robert; and one sister, Shirley Boyd who all preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by one son, Maurice Madison and her special uncle, J.T.

Sadie's education and service to the community was foremost in her mind. After she attended and graduated from Sumner High School in Kansas City, she also attended junior college in Kansas City and continued her quest for higher education at Oakland Community College. While working for Sullivan & Smith Real Estate Co. She attained her real estate license to help others obtain their dream of home ownership.

Sadie's commitment to the people of Michigan and the country led her to Universal Negro Improvement Association which led her to being named the national secretary of the organization.

Her legacy included college scholarships for Black students worldwide sponsored by the UNIA.

Sadie had many personal interests, including writing poetry, travel and being a frequent guest on the Morning Show with her grandson and radio personality, Foolish.

Sadie's compassion for family and others oozed from her being. Whoever entered her space was loved.
