“ I remember a story told about my granddaddy and his WWII experience. He was detailed to pick up dead bodies on the beach. It sounds horrific and I can't begin to imagine the impact that must have had on the rest of his life. But...today is a new day for granddad. Because today he will see the spirits of those men whose bodies he once held and they will say, "Well done God's good and faithful servant".

“ The only person who could call me Runt has left me. I was blessed to have him as a grandfather. My memories of him are priceless. I will miss Granddaddy telling the story of him sneaking me to the store when I was on punishment and buying me powdered doughnuts. I had powder all over my face when I got home. And when mom caught us he just laughed and denied everything. I love ya Pops. -Runt
