

Mr. Samuel David Henderson Jr.

May 16, 1952 - April 24, 2013

Samuel David Henderson, Jr. was born May 16, 1952 in Detroit, Michigan as the cherished son of Samuel David Henderson, Sr. and Lovie (Monroe) Henderson. Both of his parents preceded him in passing. He was the youngest of seven children.

Sam graduated from Martin Luther King, Jr. Senior High School where he was named best dressed of his senior class. As a scholar he obtained a Bachelors of Arts degree from the University of Detroit Mercy and a Master of Science degree in Psychology from Walden University. During his graduate studies he was an inducted member of Psi Chi-The National Honors Society in Psychology.

Sam also possessed ingenuity to fix almost anything in the home and on a car. He loved a great road trip and enjoyed the scenic route whenever possible. He also loved technology and gadgets. He received great excitement from well-made clothing. He dressed with attention to superb detail down to the cuffs of his pants.

Sam was a skilled fisherman and avid softball player. He completed multiple marathons including the Crim Run and the Detroit Free Press Marathon. He was truly into physical health, maintained knowledge of homeopathic cures, and was successful with his experiments of healthy cooking. His only weaknesses were McDonald's french fries, popcorn and coffee. He was a sports enthusiast and animatedly enjoyed basketball, football, and baseball games.

Through a marital union with Etta (Moody) Henderson, his two daughters were born. He stressed to his daughters sisterhood, being humble, and "keeping your hands clean" of mess. He was also eager to share his interest of fishing, other sports, fixing cars, and carpentry even though the specialties are thought to be for men only. In addition, he exposed his daughters to cultural and sporting events, historic Detroit landmarks, and tidbits on how to survive "boy scout style".

Kelly & Karmen just know that you are in my prayers as always and to be absent from the body is to present with the Lord. To my brother June, no matter what we had a lot of good times and good memories as kids. I will love you always.

Your sister...Roslyn
