“Baby brother I wasn't prepared to say goodbye. But, our Heavenly Father didn't agree. When I got the news yesterday morning that you left this life I felt blind-sided. But, today is Thanksgiving so I'll focus on how grateful I am for the love you showed me through the years. I can't even begin to express how grateful I am for 62 years of memories. I know I'm going to miss the memories of your singing voice, your laughter, your humor, your antics, hearing you say, "Bless your heart," our restaurant excursions when we'd "eat for fun," and so much more. Best of all I know you believed in Jesus, so I'll look forward to joining you, Mama, Daddy and David...but honestly I pray that's not any time soon (thank You Lord for understanding 🙏). For now I'm glad you're basking in the joy that only being with Jesus provides. I love you Baby Brother! I know Mary and Catherine agree that you'll always be alive in our hearts. Love always, Your Big Sister, Chris

We use to ride the church bus together. Enjoyed our morning conversations. He was a sweet spirit. Praying for the whole family. Love you all.
