Sandra attended North Eastern High School, followed by attaining an “Associate of Arts Degree in “Accounting”.

Becoming an “Executive Homemaker” opened doors to many new adventures and proved to be very rewarding for her husband and her children as well. Sandra married her soul mate Clayton Malone, Sr. whom many could see the loving bond they shared and the tender way their love showed.

“ I Sincerely Offer My Condolence: Times like this make us sad. But, there is "a time to weep." (Ecclesiastes 3:4) Yey you can have the hope of seeing your love one. Jesus said "Do not let your heart be troubled." (John 14:27) Sometimes we may feel paralyzed by a tragedy such as this. Remeber: God can help you to endure any and every problem they may face. He will give you the "power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next. (2Corinthians 4:7)

Thanking and Praising God for allowing me to live next door to "San " from 1990 to 2011, truly a blessing to cherish all the memories. Southern hospitality and kindness. Aroma of home cooked meals flowing from their house and barbecue even in the winter. I remember thinking I going to learn to barbecue "San came to the rescue helped me not to be so impatient with starting the fire. Also not to be so heavy handed with the lighter fluid. When I moved what I missed most was not having my next door neighbor living next to me. The morning my son died "San" was the first to arrive and console me with a hug. To know your neighbor and love them, it's a beautiful blessing that will forever be etched in my heart. Clayton condolences, praying God's comfort you experience in such a time like this... I witnessed the love between the two of you and how you two cared for each other, Adam, Tony, Crystal, Tiffinique, BJ & CJ I love you all and family. CJ you keep popping up with your visits with Usher or alone. "San" loved all her children oh how she spoke highly of you. San truly loved family, extended family, friends . Know that you can cast all your cares on Him (JESUS) because He cares for you. Jesus cares about everything you dealing with. Proverbs 3:5-6, Romans 8 ( Romans 8:28)
