“ Sandra and I met in Second Life(SL) where she is known Almond. She had been on the grid for some time, however, our paths did not cross until 2016. From that point on we found a brother and sister bond as we got to know each other. She became my SL sister. We are and always will be family. She was a quiet person, but she was just taking in everything that was going on around her. She was always willing to help better other's experience when interacting with them. I remember when I helped her to get her mic working and the joy in her voice was priceless. I will forever remember that joyous voice. She will forever be my sister and she will forever have a special place in my heart. I will miss you Almond.

“ Sandra (Almond as she was known on the virtual world Second Life) was an awesome individual with a pleasingly quiet personality. On SL she was a part of the Road Runner family. Her brothers and sisters there will miss her dearly. You are with the Lord now so enjoy your well deserved peaceful rest. WE LOVE YOU ALMOND.
