

Mrs. Sandra Kaye Gibson

May 9, 1952 - August 2, 2025

Sandra Kaye Gibson was born May 9, 1952, in Detroit, Michigan to Beatrice Geraldine Northern and James Edward Bonner, both have made their transition before her. Sandra graduated from Central High School in 1971 then went on to pursue her calling as a nurse graduating from JTPA school of practical nursing in 1985. Sandra gave birth to two sons, Vincent Bonner who transitioned before her and James Daniels. She married the love of her life Michael Gibson on July 28, 1994, and gained two children through her union with Michael, Shalada Gibson and Michael Gibson Jr who also transitioned before her. Up until her transition Michael has always showered her with flowers, taken care of her and loved her unconditionally for 31 years.

Sandra was ordained as an evangelist minister under the leadership of Pastor Gregory Foster Sr of Kadash Baptist Church. Sandra was also an evangelist minister at Truth Christian Assembly under the late Apostle Michael Shakespeare. Sandra's life is full of so many people that she has led to Christ, encouraged in Christ, and loved through Christ. Sandra loved God and she loved God's people, always having a heart to assist where she could.

Sandra will always be remembered for her classy dressing, her flawless makeup, and eyelashes all assembled with her infectious smile, caring heart, and support. Sandra would always make sure that others knew they were seen, she greeted everyone, even if she was not feeling well.

The most important part of Sandra's life is that she lived it dedicated to God. Even in sickness you would find her watching sermons, studying her Bible, praying and praising with praise music on. She loved to sing and talk about the goodness of God.

Sandra leaves to cherish her memories, her devoted husband Michael, her son James, her daughter Shalada Gibson, her brother Gary Bonner, and her prize and joy grandchildren Jamie Daniels, and Javion Wilson. She also leaves a host of family and friends that loved her deeply.

“My dear sister in law Sandra never met a stranger. From the moment you encountered her, her vibrant personality and warm spirit made you feel welcomed. She was a deeply prayerful and virtuous woman of God, always ready with a smile, encouraging words, and a heartfelt prayer for anyone in need.

She dedicated her life to service, first working as a LPN providing diligent and compassionate care to her patients in a nursing home and later becoming an ordained minister. She was also very skilled with computers, enjoyed shopping, and loved watching movies. Above all, she poured her love into her family—loving wife, devoted to her only son and a proud grandmother to her two grandchildren.

Even through years of health challenges, Sandra carried herself with grace, dignity, and unwavering faith—reminding those around her of the steadfast spirit found in the book of Job.

One cherished memory is when Sandra and my brother visited my family and I in Florida. We went out to dinner, laughed, and shared a wonderful evening together. It was in moments like these—surrounded by family—that Sandra’s joy shone brightest.

What many will miss most is her voice on the phone—her laughter, her wise and loving words, and her willingness to stop everything to pray for a loved one.

When remembering Sandra, the song Going Up Yonder comes to mind. There is no doubt she is now resting in God’s loving arms. She can truly say, “I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” 2 Timothy 4:7-8

“ Sandra was my mother-in-love and my children’s beloved grandmother. When my son and I had nowhere to go, she opened her home and her heart to us. Through her example, I came to know a loving and forgiving God, and because of her, I was baptized. Her kindness, faith, and love will live on in our hearts forever.

“ My Aunt Kaye meant so much to me and my family. She never let me ever think that I was not loved and was the anchor that kept me in touch with my father’s side of the family. Her love for me will be missed.
