“ I was Sandy's teacher briefly at Cherryhill Performing Arts in Inkster. A close friend of mine whose daughter was a friend of Sandy's posted his picture and I immediately remembered his cute little face in my classroom. He was one of my sweetest students. I remember his big sister was very protective of him and would pick him up from my class at the end of the day. I was really fond of Sandy and his little smile tugged at my heart. I remember seeing him after he left the school in Oak Park which was where I lived at the time and I was happy and surprised to see him. I was like Sandy! What are you doing here...and he just gave me his cute little smile. Well I never forgot him and I'm proud to see what a responsible and good adult he matured into. I see his sweet spirit as a child continued into his adulthood. I know his sweet spirit is now resting with the Lord! To his parents, siblings, and loved ones I'm so sorry that this happened. It breaks my heart and you all are deeply in my prayers!

“ I watched Sandy mature from a child into a young man. His mother and I were very close and shared many memories together. He was always very polite and let's not forget, funny. He will be greatly missed and always remembered.
