

Mr. Sean Joemal Mathis Sr.

April 21, 1977 - July 31, 2014

His Journey:

Sean Joemal Mathis, Sr. "Scoop" was born April 21, 1977 at Hutzel Hospital in Detroit, MI to the union of Ponolia and John Mathis II.

Sean's greatest passion was boxing. At the age of 14 he started attending Butzel Community Center in Detroit, where he won multiple boxing awards. And even though he did not further a career in boxing, he talked about it often and taught his sons the ins and outs of boxing.

Sean was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system. He graduated from Henry Ford High School and also was awarded for the "Best Dressed."

Sean was a ladies' man. He loved fashion and loved to dress. Anytime you saw Sean, he was dressed to impress!! Sean had a big heart, and he loved his family. He always greeted you with a hug and a kiss. His greatest accomplishment was his children: Sean, Shaniya, Makayla, Kimberly, Jermaine and Jermari. He loved his children more than anything; they were his world.

Sean (Scoop) was a party man. He was the life of the party! He loved to laugh and tell jokes. His favorite quotes were, "You look like a fool!" and "That's a blessing." Family gatherings were his favorite. He loved seeing all his family come together and have a great time.

Sean was called home on July 31, 2014.

“ Sean and I Tunisia aka Nisia Boo use to dance in group together. The guys were called Poison and the girls were called Smooth Seduction. We would make up routines and do them at every party. We even won a talent show at the Grand Quarters. You couldn't tell us nothing when we were on The New Dance Show we stayed in the camera. We stayed fresh all we wore was Polo and Nautica. Everybody loved Sean house parties as a matter of fact I have a dvd of one of the house parties to date. We had the time of our lives in the 90's. I just saw him at Cooley picnic and told him he has always been too cool in a superfly type of way and he busted out laughing. Sean will be truly missed.
To the family, my deepest condolences and my God bless your family.
