August 31, 1974 - July 25, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Seantell Na-Te' Burnett-Frank:

Seantell Na-Té' Burnett was born on August 31, 1974 in Botsford Hospital in Farmington Hills, Michigan to Jacquelyn Marie Burnett and Nathan Mosby.

Seantell accepted Christ at an early age and was affectionately known as "Tudi" or "Sean" by her family and friends.

Tudi attended the St. Martin Deporres High School until her last year, which she finished at Cody High School in Detroit. While in high school, Tudi matured and participated in ballet, basketball and jazz dancing. After high school, Tudi attended school for nursing assistant and obtained her certification.

Seantell was joined in holy matrimony to Benjamin Frank in June of 1999, and later joined the Army. Unfortunately, a long debilitating illness cut her service short.

Although Tudi enjoyed reading and writing poetry, what she enjoyed most were her children, their antics and their accomplishments.
