

Ms. Sharon Annette Burden

December 20, 1956 - February 24, 2014

Her Journey:

Sharon Annette Burden was the firstborn to the late Parkes Sr. and Millie Stewart on December 20, 1956 in Lawrenceburg, TN. At an early age she was full of personality and the epitome of a “daddy’s girl” and her mother’s first favorite” known as “the gold baby.”

Sharon completed her general education in Detroit Public Schools, graduating from Northwestern High school in 1974. She continued her studies at the University of Texas at El Paso where she was also saved and filled with the Holy Spirit.

Sharon attended Clinton Street Greater Bethlehem Temple, New Creation, and Greater Apostolic Faith Temple where she served in the sign language ministry.

She was wedded to Stephen Burden and from this union they became the parents of four children: Shayna Stephen, Sierra and Sean. Family was most important to Sharon, especially her children who were her pride and joy. She had a great sense of humor and some of her best times as a mother were sharing silly moments and big laughs with her children.
