In Loving Memory of

Sharon Miranda Priestly was born on September 28, 1950, to David Melvin Priestly Sr. and Ida Jeanette Beanum who both preceded her in death. She was the oldest of four children born to this union, her brother David Melvin Priestly Jr. also preceded her in death.

Sharon, affectionately known as “Randy,” attended Southwestern High School and graduated in 1967 at the age of sixteen. Sharon began her Christian journey at a young age at Third Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend T.H. Carter. She had a passion for doing hair and became a licensed cosmetologist. She wanted to be a fashion designer with her love of sewing. She married Roecilious Williams and to this union one daughter (Sharronda) was born. Sharon worked at the United States Postal Service where she was employed for 42 years until her retirement in 2009. Sharon was known to lighten up a room with her beautiful smile, she was the life of the party. She loved to travel, shop, fix up her home, go to the park, watch the fireworks, play bingo, and the lottery (do not call her during the lottery drawing). For the love of her family, she enjoyed spending time with them. Sharon was always there if you needed her for anything. She went to every event to which she was invited.
