

Mrs. Sharon Rosalind Stewart

December 15, 1941 - May 15, 2017

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Family Hour

Monday, May 22. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church
2080 W. Grand Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48208
(313) 898-3325

Funeral Service

Monday, May 22. 11:00 AM (ET)

Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church
2080 W. Grand Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48208
(313) 898-3325

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Sharon Rosalind Stewart

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ THANKs EVERYONE for Sharing these Memories about my MOM, it makes my Heart flutter&smile knowing how much of a Impact she's had in different people's lives at one time or another or the GOODTIMES shared in her vivacious&fun-spirited, Beautiful Life. BLOWING KiSSes&HuGs too HEAVEN Every moment, Everyday. I LOOOVE You Ma ♡♡♡

SaMeya Stewart-Crowley - June 01, 2017 at 05:09 PM

“ *Ms. Stewart was an awesome, beautiful lady! I used to enjoy spending extra time with her during my visiits to her home as her nurse. I loved hearing her stories of her youth and talking about her family! I remember once she had seen this "Coconut Cake" on "The View" and asked me to make it for her; she said, "It's an easy cake to make",, the cake took 2-days to prepare and complete !!! Some easy cake huh Ms. Stewart? ,, sooo many fond memories of her! She will be missed! RIP
Love your friend, Annette. RN*

Annette Schlener - May 21, 2017 at 01:43 PM

AB

“ My aunt Sharon had me thinking my middle name was "Mae". She would always call on me and say, "Lisa Mae Lisa Mae would you come out and play". Of course, I was young. I didn't know I didn't have a middle name at the time. I remember when I was in the first grade, I would write my name Alisa Mae Brown. The teacher mentioned it to my mother, and my mother told me I didn't have a middle name. That's how I found out the sad truth about my middle name. Aunt Sharon I will miss you dearly. Love Alisa Brown!

Alisa Brown - May 18, 2017 at 02:29 PM

AB

“ My aunt Sharon loved her music, loved to sing, and loved to stir up things. I remember back in the 60s when we would visit. She would always entertain us singing and dancing. Some of the music I remember she loved to play was Tighten Up, The Cleanup Woman, Aquarius, The 7 Sun, You Got Me Going In Circles, At Last and Can I just to name a few. She loved her scary movies, and watch them faithfully on Saturday. I worked in my granddaddy's cleaner's on Saturdays and in the summertime. That is how we spent so much time together. She told me one day "John Lee Hooker" heard her sing at a venue. He asked my grandfather (Granddaddy) if Sharon could go out on the road with him. If she hadn't been so afraid to grab that opportunity and sing in the public, she always felt she could have been a star. Right up there with Aretha is what she would say. I had a lot of fun with my aunt. Skating. Picnics. Hanging out on the weekends on Bangor. Going to the cabin up north. Sharon and my aunt Jack would scare us half to death when we would spend the night at their homes. Of course, we were 4, 5 and 6 years old. They would turn out the lights, bring out the mask, and make creepy noises. We would have tears in our eyes; they would laugh hysterically. When I got older and visited, we would sit and laugh for a few hours. I love you auntie! I will miss you! Angela Brown

Angela Brown - May 18, 2017 at 02:20 PM