

Ms. Sharon Turner

December 4, 1960 - August 24, 2021

In Loving Memory of

Sharon you are a true big sister, throughout the years you taught us so much, we learned how to be gracious and ladylike, we learned style and fashion, and most importantly we learned how to treat others kindly and not to judge people. As we became parents, you made it clear to us, that our most important job was to teach our children morals and integrity, well Sharon I think we listened because all your nieces and nephews, are amazing young people who each has a very special relationship with you and will forever love and miss you.

From Buff, Lisa, and Jeannin

It's hard for me to find words to express how I feel, to make sense of it all. I am most grateful of the impact you had on my children and grandchildren, each relationship was as unique as the other. The older nieces and nephews nicknamed you ShayMo, the younger ones called you ShayMoSki. Well shaymo shaymoski the love between you and each one of them individually will forever have a special place in my heart. Rest well Auntie Sharon.

From Earnestine

To my dear sister Sharon words can't describe how I'm feeling right now all that I been thinking about these last couple of days is how we used to laugh at all our friends we have: together I remember how you would call me and ask me about someone and we just bust out laughing. That is in my heart forever.

Love, your brother, Kenneth

"Big brother Ralph loves you and will miss you very much, you will never be forgotten your warmth, smile and laughter will always be remembered."

My Dearest Aunt, if kind was a person, that would be you. I will forever hold in my heart the memories we created. Like how we would sit and laugh about your dearest friend, Tommy, hog mog and them biscuits. How you would always compliment me even when I'd be over dressed. Everybody loves shaymo!!! You will forever hold a special place in my heart Auntie.

May you rest in pretty peace. - Bailey

Auntie, I'll miss your kindness and your love. I'll miss your happy smile, and I promise that every single day I'll remember for a while. We shared something truly special, something that can never be replaced. A bond that the years can never fade, memories that time cannot erase. To lose you brings much sadness but know that you live on in my heart and in my memory. Shines the guiding light you shone so sleep now softly angel. In your eternal rest to have you as my auntie I was truly blessed.
