

Ms. Sheryl Arlette Martin

August 27, 1955 - October 10, 2016

Celebrating The Life of Sheryl Arlette Martin:

Sheryl Arlette Martin was born on August 27, 1955 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Shelton and the late Vera Martin.

Sheryl joined and was christened within the Spiritual Israel Church and Its Army at an early age. She was an active choir member of the Tender Hearts, which was the beginning of her love for music and singing.

Sheryl was educated in the Detroit Public Schools and she graduated from Cass Technical High School. She continued her education at Michigan State University and graduated with a Bachelors Degree in Performing Arts. While in college, she pledged and joined the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. After graduating, she moved to New York City, then overseas to Paris, France, Greece and Turkey.

Sheryl was employed at Tiffany's in New York City, Barnes and Nobles in West Bloomfield, Michigan and she worked as a substitute teacher within the Southfield Public Schools for five years, until she became ill.

Sheryl's favorite hobbies included reading and watching various kinds of health related holistic books and tapes. She also enjoyed performing as a local and international singer. She performed at many local venues which included: Nikolas Restaurant and the local libraries. She also performed as an international sensation in Paris, France, Greece and Turkey.

Sheryl's favorite saying was, "If God be for me, who can be against me."

Sheryl departed this life on October 10, 2016.

“ We want to express our sympathy and let you know that our thoughts are with you and the family.. We loved Sheryl very much.. We will miss her dearly ...we are shocked by her passing.

Mr and Mrs James H Bullock Jr. - November 21, 2016 at 09:29 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolence for the loss of your dear loved one. Even though I have lost loved ones, death is never an 'easy pill to swallow.' The Bible repeatedly speaks about the elimination of death and God's promise of everlasting life for mankind. "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." Also "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." (Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29) May the love of family and friends be a source of comfort in these difficult times and may GOD give you strength to carry on with each passing day
