Sheryl Lynn Myers was born May 27, 1952 in Detroit, Michigan to Helene Whitley and Milton Teamer, where she ultimately resided her entire life. She was raised thereafter under the union of Charles and Helene Brazil. Sheryl grew up in the Muslim religion and accepted Christianity later in life.

Sheryl loved music and to sing. She was known for her sparkling and outgoing personality. She attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Central High School in 1969. After high school, Sheryl attended Marygrove College and received several professional certifications; one notably in stenography.

Sheryl performed clerical work for several companies earlier in life and as a young woman she was a backup singer for the R&B group The Spinners. Ultimately, her primary job in life was as a wife, mother, and grandmother. She was known to have a caring and nurturing personality to whomever she encountered. She will lovingly be remembered as a sister, friend to many, and dutiful daughter.

Her other interests were African themed art, dancing, and gardening. She enjoyed most of all, being with family. Sheryl was joined in holy matrimony with Verne Myers Sr. on August 23, 1973. They raised five children together. Sheryl departed this life on April 19, 2016.
