“ I remember when we were young adults. Sidney, would always come over my house to do some type of repair work for me rather it was unstopping a sink or painting a wall he was always there for me. I dont know if a lot of the younger generations of our family really knew how talented and skilled he was. Back in the day he saved me a lot of money on repairs when I could not afford to higher somebody else. He did the work because I was his cousin. For that I would always be grateful. This was my first thought of him when I learned he had passed. Sidney may you rest in peace. My thoughts and prayers are with the rest of the family for guidance, strenght and comfort during this time of sorrow. God be the glory. Love Pam
