“ Sierra was a daughter to us. And likewise Trenton is my grandson Baby Shark. My heart is broken and I struggle to contain my “why” questions to God. Sierra was a firecracker. Whenever she was around she was never mad or angry - always upbeat and full of joy. I know she had struggles and hard times but she didn’t let those get her down. She became a part of our family without even trying. That “Hey Ma” was a beautiful thing!

She believed in God and understood his power, grace and mercy. For that I am grateful. In my heart I know she has danced through those Pearly Gates of Heaven. My prayer for the family is to remember all that Sierra was and is through Trenton. There are many things in life that we do not understand but know God sees you and cares for you - even in this chaos. Do not sink in despair but know that God is. Even in the silent, unseen places, God is working. Healing your wounds and strengthening your spirit.

Rest in peace my Sierra.

“ I was heartbroken to hear about Sierra’s passing. I had the privilege of knowing her when she was in fifth grade at Noble Elementary, and I will always remember her as such a funny, caring, and lovable student who brought joy to those around her. She had a special way of making people smile, and her warmth left a lasting impression on me.

Please know that my heart is with your family during this incredibly difficult time. Sierra will be remembered fondly and missed deeply. With deepest sympathy, Amber Watson-Nancarrow
