

Mr. Sol Junius Yarbrough

September 14, 1920 - February 24, 2014

Sol Junius Yarbrough was born on September 14, 1920 in Camden, Arkansas to the late Eddie and Claudia Yarbrough. He was the fourth of five children.

Sol peacefully departed this life on Monday evening, February 24, 2014 at his home, The Fountains of Franklin in Southfield, Michigan.

Sol attended and graduated from Camden Arkansas' Public School System. He left home when he was 18 years old and moved to Detroit, MI.

In January 1943, Sol enlisted in the U.S. Army. He was later honorably discharged due to poor health.

Sol worked at General Motors Corporation for 32 1/2 years starting as a Welder and advancing to the position of Foreman at the time of his retirement in 1974.

Sol was united with the church at an early age in Camden, AR. He served as a long term member in good standing of God's House of Prayer. He was a generous and God loving man that cared deeply about his family, church and neighbors.
