“ Solomon worked with my husband, Reggie and I, when we were Branch Managers for World Book in Detroit in 1987-1994. We grew to know him and love him, as did all who were lucky enough to know him. My kids were young then--they are grown now & still talk about his peach cobbler. I know Reggie was there to Shepard him in.

Much love. DIANA ALSBROOK

“ To Rev. Pecola Bell and the Bell Family:

Your Russell Street Missionary Baptist Church family would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere condolences to your family on the loss of Brother Solomon Bell, Jr..

May it comfort you to know that death cannot diminish the important ways Brother Bell touched your life. Sorrow will fade in time, but love will last forever.

Russell Street family will keep you in our prayers and Jesus will always be with you. Scripture says, “Lean not to your own understanding.” Look towards the Lord for your strength and inner peace.

Please feel free to all us if we can be of service.

Yours in Christ,

Adrian K. Rushin, Church Clerk

Rev. Dr. Dee Dee M. Coleman, Pastor
